

Legal Content Services

The Legal Services team of Lumina Datamatics comprises several in-house experts who combine their knowledge with the latest in technology to meet all-encompassing content demands in creating deliverables of choice. Our experienced analysts, editors, and attorneys delve into the areas of taxation and commercial damages, business crimes, and statutes/torts to provide solutions. The process involves keeping track of changes in primary laws, secondary laws, and case laws in the United States, United Kingdom, and the European Union. We provide full-service publishing support for books, loose-leaf editions, cumulative supplements, newsletters and report letters. These come in a variety of output formats, including composed PDFs, XML, and EPUB.
